

Business Travel Forum 2018

Taking travel management policy to the next level

Wednesday November 14, 2018

9:30-13:00 (arrival and registration 9:00-9:30)

American Express Global Business Travel Nippon Travel Agency (GBT NTA) provides the latest market information and solutions for the optimization of business travel corporate programs as a market leader that drives the business travel industry forward.

In this business travel forum, under the theme of "Taking travel management policy to the next level", we will share useful information for improving Business Travel Management (BTM) by showing the present situation, future direction as well as the virtual payment tool that has been drawing attention as a new tool to manage expense settlement.

Along with our sponsors, we have prepared programs to show how we can improve the quality of business travel in Japan by making use of advanced technology.

We look forward to having you join us.
